

Mill Chase Academy

Ambition, Courage, Excellence

| | |
|---|---|
|  | Lauren Coombes Mill Chase Student September 2007 to July 2012 |
| College & Qualifications Achieved | South Downs College. Extended BTEC National Diploma in Forensic science at DDD*. |
| University & Qualifications Achieved | Royal Holloway University of London - Bachelors Degree in Criminology and Psychology to then go on to a Masters in Forensic Psychiatry, then a PhD in Psychological practice. I will also be spending some time at Yale University in America to further my degree as part of my course. |
| Current Role | Criminology and Psychology degree student. Teaching improvisational comedy at the University's local secondary schools. |
| Achievements | My participation in singing and playing the guitar throughout the whole of my journey that started at Mill Chase. My course at college was amazing especially the Psychology and the practical crime scene examinations that we carried out. The day I received my acceptance letter from RHUL after a lot of hard work. I have also established a good name for myself among my local community, colleagues and teachers. Meeting a group of fantastic people with the same interests! |

Personal Message

Getting involved in any activities will really help you move forward with your own personal skills and aids your application to further education. The better you look on paper, the more reason they have to take you!

Also no matter what you get told, don't stop doing what you love because it will pay off.